No: SMED/DMCH/NOTICE/2019/016/ 3860

Date: - 07.11.2023

NOTICE

1. It is for general information to all students that a serious and regrettable incident has taken place in the Dhansiri Boys' hostel of Diphu Medical College & Hospital on 31.10.2023, wherein 4 (four) two wheelers were found to be in use and parked in the premises of the Boys' hostel. All the two wheelers belong to some of the senior most batch's students i.e. 2020. They have been blatantly using the 2 wheelers, defying all norms and decorum of the hostel. Hereby a serious warning is being issued to all students not to violate hostel rules and regulations, failure of which will be dealt with sternly now onwards.
2. No liquor or addictive substances will be allowed in the hostel. If found to be in use the occupants of the particular room and any other students involved will forfeit his/her hostel seat as well as college seat.
3. In addition any students found absent in his room after 8 P.M will also stand to lose his hostel seat.
4. Students may avail any vacation with proper application. If any student is found availing vacation/holidays without prior information & permission, he will forfeit his hostel seat. Such students who so wishes to continue staying in the hostel, will have to seek fresh admission with security money.
5. No student batch may go for a picnic without proper permission. Those found violating the above rules and regulations will also have their names cancelled from the hostel register.
6. As a stringent measure, uniforms of 2021 & 2022 batches will be changed from the following year. They may consult the O/o Principal cum Chief Superintendent regarding the change.

Prof. (Dr.) Sumitra Hagjer
